

ARE WE BORN OR ARE WE MADE! SOCIOLOGY KILLER QUIZ!

Name _____

What is the name of the subject that you are studying?

Use the words in the box to answer the questions.

History	Anthropology	Case study
---------	--------------	------------

This is where you look at one single event or person and learn what you can.

_____ is the study of how people acted in the past.

The study of different people in different countries and cultures is known as

Write down one way of behaving that is different in America from Britain.

Which of the following meanings comes closest to nurture theory?

- Humans are born to act as they do
- Humans can learn how to behave from others around them.
- It is natural for women to look after babies.

What is a feral or wild child?

Name an example of a child who was brought up without other humans.

Suggest two ways in which people behaved or thought differently in the past.

i.

ii.

Suggest one way in which humans are different from animals

What is gender?

Use the words in the box to answer the questions.

Sex	Gender	Expectation
-----	--------	-------------

This is a biological sense of male or female. _____

_____ is how people think you should behave.

The idea that you have of how you should behave according to your sex is known as

What is an anthropologist?

What do the following words or terms mean?

Norm
Value
Feral child
Culture
Socialisation	